

Members of the Galactic Reproductive Freedom Resistance,

It takes a lot of power, determination, and boldness to defy the forces of gravity and patriarchy and launch a Reproductive Freedom spaceship out of the planetary atmosphere and onward toward its fundraising goal. We just want to say, you all are flying like aces. However, it is a mere 2 weeks until we meet at Resistance Headquarters (aka Park Tavern) for the Galactic Bowl-A-Thon, and we still have some fundraising lightyears to go to reach our mark.

$8 a day. $56 this week. $112 in two weeks. If all of us bowlers were to raise that much, we would surpass our goal of $85,000. If that doesn't do it for you, how about this: If we all hit our fundraising goals, we will raise over $100,000!!!

Want help getting there? Here are the standard issue Galactic Reproductive Freedom Resistance fundraising supplies:

The Queen Pins are truly in touch with the “force” (hope/love/commitment to justice) and are channeling that into their Galactic Reproductive Freedom Resistance fundraising efforts. Two of their team members (including this year’s current #1 fundraiser Alison Babb) have posted fundraising ideas on our Galactic Bowl-A-Thon Facebook page for all of us, and you can check out some fundraising asks on Twitter by searching for the hashtag #PCRBowl. If you click “going” on the Facebook event page you will be notified when people post their great fundraising or costume ideas, and it is a great place to post your own amazing ideas so other members of the Resistance can meet their fundraising goals as well.

Also, to get you excited for the Bowl-A-Thon itself, here are some of the contests that we will be handing out prizes for during each shift of the Bowl-A-Thon:

- Best Team Costume
- Best Team Name
- Team That Raised The Most Money
- Individual That Raised The Most Money
- Best Bowling Score

Plus, there will be fun and hilarious games with prizes during the afterparty, and of course the yet to be announced Grand Prize. Also, who can forget, this week's contest. $150 is by far the most common goal bowlers have set for themselves, so let's get ourselves either halfway there, or finish the race and reset our goal even higher. Every bowler who raises $75 between 12:01am 3/9 and 12:01pm, Monday, 3/13 will be entered to win 2 tickets for any show at In the Heart of the Beast Puppet and Mask Theatre.

May Love, Hope, and Commitment to Justice be with you,

The Staff at Pro-Choice Resources

P.S. Congratulations to the Queen Pins for winning a gift certificate for 6 tickets and 6 drinks at Huge Improv Theatre.
